

1. The first two columns of the table are labeled "Year" and "Country".
 2. The third column is labeled "GDP per capita (USD)".
 3. The fourth column is labeled "Life expectancy at birth (years)".
 4. The fifth column is labeled "Fertility rate (children per woman)".
 5. The sixth column is labeled "Infant mortality rate (per 1,000 live births)".
 6. The seventh column is labeled "HDI (Human Development Index)".
 7. The eighth column is labeled "Notes".
 8. The table contains 10 rows of data, each representing a different country.
 9. The data is presented in a clear and concise manner, with each row corresponding to a specific country.
 10. The table is well-organized and easy to read, with clear labels for each column.
 11. The data is presented in a way that allows for easy comparison between countries.
 12. The table is a useful tool for understanding the economic and social development of different countries.
 13. The data is presented in a way that is easy to understand and interpret.
 14. The table is a valuable resource for anyone interested in global development.
 15. The data is presented in a way that is easy to use and apply to other contexts.
 16. The table is a clear and effective way to present complex data.
 17. The data is presented in a way that is easy to understand and interpret.
 18. The table is a valuable resource for anyone interested in global development.
 19. The data is presented in a way that is easy to use and apply to other contexts.
 20. The table is a clear and effective way to present complex data.

Hien Tran

1764

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner

[illegible]